March 13, 2016

Lent 2016 - Be merciful, as your Father is merciful.

Are you having a tough time being Merciful this Lent?

Then try the penances of our past Lents: Don't Gossip, Don't Complain, Don't Judge, Don't Hold Grudges, and "Oremus" - pray for the person who needs your Mercy. From all these, Mercy will flow.

The "Third and Final Scrutiny" will be today at the 9:00 AM Mass for our Elect, Anna, Tom and John. This scrutiny emphasizes Christ as "the Resurrection and the Life" as we hear the Gospel of the raising to life of Lazarus. This means that each believer has eternal life, and, if he has died to sin, has passed from death to life. This scrutiny is primarily for the Elect but reminds each of us of the promises God has made through Jesus of eternal life with our dying to sin.

Welcome to the Christian Community:

Collins Christine Lusk, daughter of Joseph and Dallas (Haverkamp) Lusk was baptized Sunday,

March 13, 2016 after the 11:00 Mass. Godparents are Gerard and TeriLynne Haverkamp. We pray God's blessings on Collins and her family.

Lenten Devotions:

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy Thursday evening at 7 PM.

Stations of the Cross on Friday afternoon at 2 PM.

PLEASE NOTE: Due to meetings at the Chancery, Father Arul will be gone several days this week. Please note changes on the Mass schedule page of the Bulletin.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

THE GOSPEL OF MERCY

Lenten Reflection for the Year of Mercy

Encountering Jesus

John 8:1-11

Today's Gospel shows us an encounter between Jesus and the scribes and Pharisees and an encounter between Jesus and the woman caught in adultery. In essence, this Gospel is not about the woman or about her sin. It is about an encounter with Jesus.

Encountering Jesus always reveals the truth — the truth about our goodness as well as the truth about our need for conversion, our need to let go of our sin and failings and live a life of discipleship.

Encountering Jesus has the potential to bring about two changes: those who are quick to condemn turn away from that practice ("they went away") and the one condemned is no longer condemned ("neither do I condemn you").

Encountering Jesus — and our conversion because of it — has both a dying and rising. We not only recognize our sinfulness (as important as that is), but we also are empowered to begin a new life, a life of relationship with Christ, a life of living Jesus' values and compassionate mercy.

"In the poor and outcast we see Christ's face; by loving and helping the poor, we love and serve Christ. Our efforts are also directed to ending violations of human dignity, discrimination, and abuse in the world.... Our consciences thus need to be converted to justice, equality, simplicity, and sharing."

— POPE FRANCIS, LENTEN MESSAGE, 2014

FOR REFLECTION

- › As I think about times I have encountered Jesus, how have these experiences changed me? Have they led me to growth, to conversion, to a new way of living?
- › Because of the way I live, the way I greet and respond to others, how do I help others encounter Jesus?
- › As I think about my favorite statue, painting, stained-glass window, or sculpture of Jesus, what does it say about my encounters with Jesus?

symbols of the season

Fasting

Fasting, one of the Lenten practices, is often observed as fasting from food. It is not because our bodies need to be punished (or that we need to go on a diet). We fast to allow our physical hunger to remind us of our spiritual hunger, our need for God. We fast to remind ourselves of our baptismal commitment and need for renewal.

Second, fasting not only reminds us of our dependence on God but also on the needs of others, the hungry and the poor. Fasting is a Gospel value, but not fasting by itself. Fasting and almsgiving are Gospel twins. Our tradition of fasting has never been to purge, to deprive the body for deprivation sake, but to have more to give away.

Lenten Prayer

Generous God, you invite us to leave the past behind and to walk in newness, to walk in freedom and love, living in the way of your Son, Jesus. Empower me to let go of fear and old ways and to trust you in the new ways to which you are calling me.

Faithful Family

The Corporal
Works of Mercy

Encountering Jesus means encountering him in all the places where he is, especially in the needy. Take a different corporal work of mercy each day and list ways that you could perform that act of mercy. Then decide on two — one as individuals, one as a family — that you will do, not just during the remaining Lenten season but throughout the year.

- › Feed the hungry
- › Give drink to the thirsty
- › Clothe the naked
- › Shelter the homeless
- › Visit the imprisoned
- › Visit the sick
- › Bury the dead

Merciful Moments

› Fast from discontent; feast on gratitude. Fast from anger; feast on patience. Fast from complaining; feast on appreciation. Fast from bitterness; feast on forgiveness. Fast from self-concern; feast on compassion for others.

› Is there someone at whom you are tempted to “throw a stone” and judge and condemn? Instead, what might you do to share Jesus’ message with them: “Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more”?

Catechism CONNECTION

“At the heart of catechesis we find, in essence, a Person, the Person of Jesus of Nazareth.’... Catechesis aims at putting ‘people ... in communion ... with Jesus Christ.’”

— Catechism of the Catholic Church, 426
