

SENECA KNIGHTS NEWSLETTER

December 2014

Council 1769

Grand Knight - Jim Reitz 294-2654
Deputy Grand Knight – Randy Heinen

Financial Secretary – Kevin Kohake 294-0906
Recorder – Alan Lierz

I wish to thank everyone who had a part in making the centennial banquet such a successful and memorable event. Toastmaster Dennis Henry's leadership role was outstanding. The Knights Choir, with the assistance of Terry Nordhus on the piano, did a super job. The speakers were all great. I am happy that Pat Winchester, our Kansas State Deputy and his wife Angie were able to attend. The clergy, invited guests, council members, wives and family numbered around 160. And now begins the next 100 years of successful brotherhood.

The Knights “Soup Day” will be held on Sunday, January 11, 2015 at the Sts. Peter and Paul Parish Hall. This is a big event and takes all members to make it work smoothly. Please see the work lists for your participation. Groups are listed below and on the back of this page. Please have pies, cheesecakes and hamburger to the parish hall by 9 a.m. or sooner. If you are not able to work, please find a replacement. We will also be sponsoring the free throw contest that day as well. If you have grade school children, encourage them to participate.

Gun Raffle – The lucky winners drawn for the gun raffle during the December 9th meeting were Shane Holthaus, Joe Kramer and Jay Suther. Three names were drawn since we did not have a drawing in November.

Charitable Giving - To demonstrate our first principal of CHARITY, through the Commitment to Humanities (Tootsie Roll) Drive, your council presented checks to Alice Lackey, representing NCTC and to Roxie and Mary Schmitz, representing Friends of the Handicapped. This is a great fund for those who need the support.

Bowling Tournament – The 71st Annual State Bowling Tournament will be held at West Ridge Lanes, Topeka starting on February 21 and 22. Entry forms have been received for registering.
