

Easter Blessings & Prayers

Easter Daily Prayer

Alleluia! Alleluia! Let Resurrection joy fill my heart, Lord of life. Alleluia! Alleluia!

May the Spirit's grace bless me this day, Lord of life. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Help me show your life and love today and every day, Lord of life. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Pentecost Litany to the Holy Spirit

That we may hear your voice all around us: Lord, send out your Spirit!

That we may open our hands generously: Lord, send out your Spirit!

That we may be ever strong in faith: Lord, send out your Spirit!

That the Church may be known as the Body of Christ:

Lord, send out your Spirit!

That healing may come to the world: Lord, send out your Spirit!

That we may truly bear fruit: Lord, send out your Spirit!

Until the day Christ comes in glory: Lord, send out your Spirit!

Table Prayer for the Season of Easter

Let us rejoice and be glad!

On this Feast of feasts we are filled with Easter life and nourished by the fruits of earth.

On this Feast of feasts may we know the presence of Christ in breaking bread with those we love.

On this Feast of feasts let our service to the hungry be a sign of his glory as we share his presence with them.

Let us rejoice and be glad!
All the earth cry out with joy!
On this Feast of feasts
may this meal be blessed as we will be at the feast of heaven. Amen.

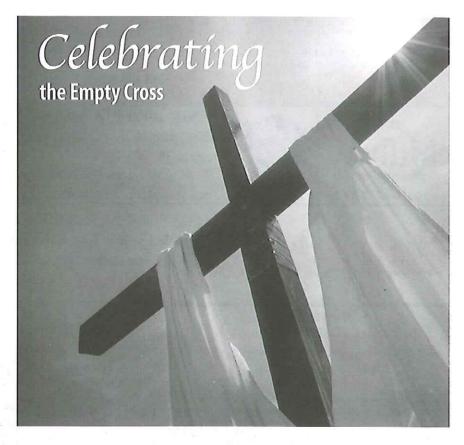

This Easter, help the children in your life to bring the Resurrection home by making an "empty cross" art project. The web offers countless ideas, but here are three very simple ones to get you started:

1: A "stained glass" cross:

Materials: wax paper, crepe paper in several colors, glue, scissors, construction paper. (Optional: craft knife/box cutter)

Spread a large sheet of wax paper with glue. Arrange torn pieces of crepe paper on one half and fold over the undecorated half so the crepe paper is firmly sandwiched between the two layers of glued wax paper. Smooth the layers and put a book on top to help it stay flat while it dries.

Meanwhile, cut the outline of a cross from the middle of a piece of construction paper, making a cross-shaped window in it. Glue it to the "stained glass." Once all the glue is dry, you can cut a to ½ to 1-inch border around the "window." The result is a stained glass cross that you can hang on the window—lovely with the sun shining behind it!

2: A "skyline" of silhouetted crosses:

Materials: paper plates, construction paper, watercolors, scissors, glue.

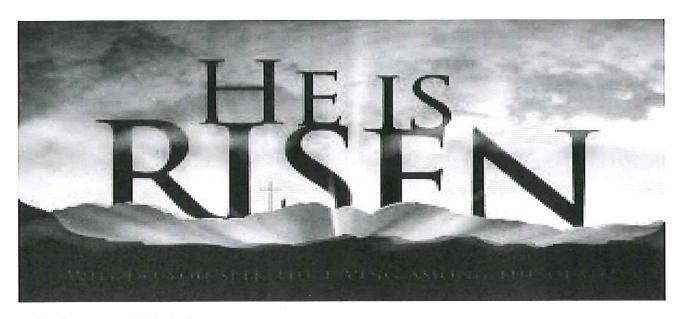

Ask your kids to imagine the sky behind the crosses in Jerusalem the day Jesus was crucified. Then ask them to imagine what it might have looked like on Easter morning, with the crosses empty. Have them paint a paper plate to represent what they imagined. While it dries, trace a "skyline" of three empty crosses on Golgotha onto black construction paper and cut it out. Use the opportunity to talk through the Passion. Why were there three crosses? Who was crucified with Jesus? Did his companions deserve to die? Did Jesus? Did either of the thieves repent? What does this teach us about the forgiveness of God? Is there anything that cannot be forgiven?

Once the plate is dry, attach the construction paper to the plate and display.

3: A "blooming" cross:

Materials: plain paper, marker, several colors of crepe paper, glue, scissors.

Cut crepe paper into squares (more or less; no need to be precise). Trace the shape of a cross on a sheet of plain paper. Fill it in with a layer of glue. Then crumple crepe paper squares and stick them on the paper. So easy! Great for little ones.

April 1st, 2018

Happy Easter!!

A Note From Our Pastor:

As we come together to celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord, I pray for all families for the many blessings of Easter. We are journeying through the Evangelization efforts to strengthen our faith and grow as a strong faith filled community. There is a prayer of the Holy Spirit and Novena to be prayed before Pentecost. We are planning to have a special Mass and Novena for the Feast of Pentecost to pray for all the sick people in our community. There will be more formation and a schedule coming out very soon. We have to offer anything we can for the healing of the sick by praying for the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

We are also in the last quarter of the School year. I want to thank the Lord for another successful School year. As we are in the planning process for the next year, I ask for your prayers and support by remembering your parish and school in your donations and Last Will. The school enrollment is looking very positive for next year. It also comes with additional responsibility. Hence I request you to plan to make sacrifices for our parish and school. It is a great means of Evangelization in our community. God Bless you all and Blessed Easterl -Fr. Arul.

"Together We Grow in Faith"

As we celebrate The Resurrection of Christ on this Easter Day, we rejoice in the Faith we have shared with each other during this Lent and Holy Triduum. We resume this new part of the Church Year by continuing to pray, to give, and to search for ways to spread and share our Faith with, not only our family, but all those we meet each day.

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Sincere Congratulations and Welcome to the new members of our Catholic Church, Dyann Parks, Leslie Kohake and William Stewart, who received the Sacrament of Confirmation and full Communion with the Church at the Easter Vigil Mass Saturday evening, March 31. Special appreciation and thanks to Rick & Joan Henry, RCIA directors, who helped prepare them for this special day. May God bless each of you on your continuing journey of Faith.

A Gracious Thank You to all Parishioners who helped make our Holy Week and Easter Services so meaningful: to all musicians, choirs, organists, cantors and music directors whose talent and hard work filled each service; for sacristans for all the necessary changes made each day; for all Mass ministers and servers present for us at each service; and for the Sophomore CCD Class and sponsors for the beautiful presentation of the Living Stations. We all rejoice in the glory of Easter through your dedicated work.

The Easter Flowers gracing our altars were beautiful again this year. Thank you to anyone who donated the altar bouquets, a lily, mum, Kalanchoe, hydrangea or peace lily in memory of your loved one. Our prayers are with them and you as a donor of the beauty of God.

Divine Mercy Sunday is next Sunday, April 8. In preparation for this Feast, St Faustina was asked by the Lord to make a 9 day novena of prayer from Good Friday to the the following Saturday. The Novena pamphlets are in the pews for us to do also. On the following Sunday, April 8th at 3 PM, we will have the singing of the Divine Mercy Chaplet in Church.

Directory Update: The final proof has been approved and submitted for printing. The Parish Directory should arrive by the end of April for distribution.

The Rosary in the Cemetery will be Wednesday, April 4th at 6:00 PM. Pray for your loved ones.

The Paper Drive is coming this Saturday, April 7th from 8:30 to 10:30 AM on Elk St. behind the Church. Please remember to separate all magazines, newspapers, and office paper.

Congratulations to Archbishop James P. Keleher who celebrated the 60th year of his ordination at the Chrism Mass on Tuesday.

The Perpetual Adoration Chapel continues to have three unfilled openings: Wednesdays 3:00-4:00 AM, Tuesdays 2:00-3:00 AM, and Fridays 7:00-

8:00 PM. Please call or text Betty Sudbeck at 336-4022 to take one of these hours for a special time with Jesus, or to be a substitute.

Just a reminder:

Holy Week Collections (where your donations went):
Holy Thursday collection was for the Lenten Missions.
Good Friday collection was for upkeep of the Holy Land.
Easter Sunday was for support of the KCKS priesthood.

- Education costs for our 31 seminarians
- Continuing education & retreats for our priests
- Pensions for our retired priests

Marriage Minute - Easter Sunday

"Let Easter impact your marriage!"

After the sacrifice of Lent and the gloom of Holy Week, we can sometimes arrive at Easter like someone who has finished a dreaded chore, and we resume regularly-scheduled life. However, if this is our approach, we miss the gift Easter can be for our marriage. The first message of the Resurrection is "Don't be afraid!" This phrase is proclaimed to all who approach the empty tomb. And to us as married people as well. We should not be afraid:

- ...of serious illness, financial or relationship problems. He has conquered even death, so He can bring good out of any evil we face.
- ...of facing our own or our spouse's sin. He loved his disciples after they abandoned Him. He can help us love each other with that same love.

Easter Resurrection Prayer

O Risen Lord, be our resurrection and life.

Be the resurrection and the life for us and all whom you have made. Be the resurrection and the life for those caught in the grip of sin and addiction.

Be the resurrection and the life for those who feel forsaken.

Be the resurrection and the life for those who live as if you do not.

Be the resurrection and the life in churches that believe they are dying.

Be the resurrection and the life in us who know the good but fail to do it, who have not been judged but still judge, who know love but still live for self, who know hope but succumb to despair.

Be the resurrection and the life for those in the throes of sickness that leads to death.

Be the resurrection and the life in families where the weak are maltreated by the strong.

Be the resurrection and the life in marriages that are disintegrating. Be the resurrection and the life in the life we share and the fellowship we enjoy, that filled anew with the wonder of your love and the power of your grace.

Be our resurrection and our life. Amen
