"Together We Grow in Faith"

The Evangelization team met last Sunday, June 10th in the parish hall to sort out the plans moving forward. We have very exciting programs coming to our parish. Please follow the bulletin and pulpit announcements in the near future. With evangelization, there is a message and a messenger. The more trustworthy the messenger, the more believable the message. In 1975, Pope Blessed Paul VI said, "Modern man listens to witnesses more willingly than teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses." Pope Benedict XVI said, "In order to evangelize, one must first be evangelized." In other words, a person must be converted before he can be a source of conversion for others. To put it more positively, the more I myself know and love Jesus, the more effectively my life will draw others to know and love Jesus. The more I know and love the Church, the more effectively my life will draw others to know and love the Church. Evangelization flows from the holiness of the one evangelizing. Holiness is the force that attracts others to the love of Jesus and embracing the Church. Among other things, holiness of life is about the integration of one's relationship with God into one's daily life. What we believe, who we are, and how we live our lives as Catholics should not be at odds with one another. We live authentically as disciples of Jesus and sons of the Church. This is a process which requires lifelong conversion. The first focus for one who wants to evangelize is not on converting the other, but focusing on one's own need for deeper conversion. At this point in your life, where is that for you? With confidence in the mercy of Jesus, I encourage you to bring that to Him often. -Fr. Arul

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Happy Father's Day!!

A Father's Prayer

O God, our Father in Heaven, I marvel to think that You have called me to be a Father too.

For in Your presence I am but a child. You are strong, I am weak, You are all holy, I am a sinner, You are perfect in wisdom and love, I am often blind and prone to selfishness. In spite of all this, You have called me to be a father here on earth. I ask from You the grace to lead my family along Your paths, by my words, but especially by my example and my prayers. Help me to put my wife and children ahead of my own ambitions and recreations, to be attentive to their needs, just as You show Your provident care to all of us. And when firmness or discipline are required, help me to be motivated, not by frustration, anger or impatience, but -like You - by a heart of love. May God's blessings be on all Fathers, this day and every day! Amen.

Flowers: The Bouquet on St Joseph's Altar is in Honor of All Living and Deceased Fathers: On the Main Altar is in loving memory of Jason Nolte from his family: On Mary's Altar is in loving memory of Elmer Suther from his family.

Congratulations to Eric Sperfslage and Quincy Haverkamp who were married on Saturday, June 16th, 2018 at Sts Peter & Paul Catholic Church by Fr. Arul Carasala. Our prayers and best wishes are with Eric & Quincy as they begin their married life together.
