† Don't forget flowers for our altars in Church †
 "God has left us from Paradise three things: the stars, the flowers and the eyes of a child." ~ Capuchin Francis Borgia.

Flowers have in God's creation a place entirely their own; they are on the globe of the earth what the stars are in the canopy of heaven – uneffaced traces of a former world, the earthly Paradise, the least affected by the curse of sin. In the splendor of their colors, in their fragrance, they are revelations of the beauty and goodness of God, emblems of His benevolence, images of His first, true designs.

Flowers also symbolize those supernatural prerogatives, graces and virtues with which the soul should be adorned;

Flowers, by reason of their freshness and beauty which they receive from the sun and which they turn towards it, are emblems of that innocence and holiness we derive from Christ, the Sun of Justice, and with which we again glorify Him and the Sun of our spiritual life. – The flowers on the altar signify, moreover, that the blossoms of grace, prayer and virtue unfold in the supernatural light and in the heavenly warmth which radiates from the sun of the Eucharistic Sacrifice.

The next time you attend Mass and see flowers adorn the sanctuary, recall the multiple levels of symbolism and raise your heart to God as you enter into the celebration of the Eucharist.

Flowers on Mary's Altar are in loving memory of Rose Zella Boeding
